Re: United States v. Karen Alameddene,
14 Cr. 808 (GHW)

Dear Judge Woods:

This letter is submitted on behalf of Karen Alameddene,¹ defendant in the above-entitled case, and whom I represent by CJA appointment. Upon reading the Court's January 9, 2014, Order, I reviewed my January 5, 2014, cover letter that accompanied the CJA 23 Financial Affidavit executed by Ms. Alameddene, I realized that I had neglected to include important information, namely that it is my understanding that the entirety of Ms. Alameddene's bank accounts have been seized by the government, and that the other assets noted in the CJA 23 (which are illiquid) are also known to the government, and potentially subject to forfeiture (and whether they have been seized, and/or whether seizure or forfeiture proceedings are underway or contemplated, is a question only the government can answer at this time).

¹ While the Indictment spells Ms. Alameddene's name differently, my understanding is that "Alameddene" is the correct spelling.

I apologize for that omission, and hope the information provided herein clarifies Ms. Alameddene's CJA 23 Financial Affidavit.

Respectfully submitted,
